Amanda Kadlubek

Voice, Vocal Health, Piano,
Beginning Ukulele, Audition/Musical
Theater Prep, and Dialects

Amanda is from the Central Coast and sings throughout San Diego as a coloratura soprano! She can also make a flawless elephant noise.

Music makes the world go 'round and if you've been feeling like you're on the outside looking in, it's time to jump in! Amanda's approach is to help you find your own style through a foundation of technique and exploration. Her aim is to help you concentrate, learn effectively, express your emotions meaningfully, and give you tools and fun insights to develop your musicianship. She wants her students to enjoy the gifts of the arts and be empowered throughout their entire lives to make music for the love of it.

Amanda has taught music and performed in opera, musical theater, choir, jazz and temple/church music for over 20 years with various organizations (PCPA, Santa Barbara Opera, the Valley Performing Arts Center, Krannert Center, PLOT, CSUN Symphony, Biola University, La Jolla Symphony Chorus, etc.) She earned her master's degree from CSUN and performs in many languages (Hebrew, Italian, French, German, Spanish, etc.) Amanda is soprano section leader at All Saints Episcopal Church in Hillcrest.
