Joshua Voss

Guitar, Bass Guitar, Ukulele,
Theory

Josh enjoys playing music, golf, and surfing.

Joshua started teaching at La Jolla Music in 2001 after graduating from San Diego State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Music where he studied under Art Johnson and taught at Alan's Music in La Mesa. Josh likes to focus his lesson plan on technique, music theory (chords, scales, improvisation, etc.), music history, and ear training. Josh specializes in multiple genres including Rock, Popular Music, Heavy Metal, Blues, Jazz, Progressive Rock and original compositions.

Musical interests and influences include John Petrucci, Eric Johnson, JS Bach, Rush, The Beatles, Led Zeppelin, Eric Clapton, Stevie Ray Vaughn, Jimi Hendrix, and many other artists.

Josh teaches all age groups and levels of students and formats the lesson plan to fit the individual students' style, level of proficiency, and interest, while at the same time, emphasizing a fun and educating experience.
