Stefan Roos

Classical Guitar

Always greatly appreciating the wonderful La Jolla air and sunshine.

Stefan Roos began studying classical guitar at the age of 8. Among others, he studied with Grammy Awards-winning Classical Guitarist Sharon Isbin at The Juilliard School in New York where he graduated with a Graduate Diploma, and with Alberto Ponce in Paris. Before completing his Post Graduate studies PSD at San Francisco Conservatory of Music in 2011 he won 4th prize at the Portland International Guitar Competition. In the United States, Stefan Roos has performed, among other venues, solo and chamber music at the at Lincoln Center in New York City.

He strongly believes in the value of individual lessons and likes to focus on the articulation of the musical language shaped by every student's unique personality.
